

Arturo Chávez

“Neapolitan Cliffs”

36” x 72” Oil/Linen/Panel

Winner of the Phoenix Art Museum’s Western Art Associates’ Purchase Award Now on exhibit in the Phoenix Art Museum’s Permanent Collection

“We are fortunate to add Arturo Chávez’s Neapolitan Cliffs to the Museum’s holdings. The painting’s rich color and fidelity to nature speak to the natural beauty of the American Southwest, while the horizontal composition appears modern in design. The painting was selected because it complements both historical and contemporary Western works in the collection and, most importantly, because it shares that quality associated with all great works of art – it will reward extended observation.”

— Jerry N. Smith, Curator of American and Western American Art,
